

GENERAL BELL PREDICTS RIOT

Abrogation of Martial Law
a Mistake.

EXPECTS A SERIOUS CLASH

Expresses Dissent From Opinion of Governor Peabody Regarding Cripple Creek Troubles.

DENVER, Col., July 28.—Adj. Gen. Sherman M. Bell has expressed dissent from the opinion of Governor Peabody that the Cripple Creek district is sufficiently pacified to justify the withdrawal of the national guard.

"I look for a clash now that military rule is ended," said he.

"I have called off the militia," said Governor Peabody, "now let the unions do the proper thing and call off the strike."

William D. Haywood, secretary-treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, said:

"The calling off of the militia has not the slightest logical bearing upon the proposition to call off the strike."

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., July 28.—William Amole, a former watchman at the Portland mine, who was arrested in connection with the alleged conspiracy of the mechanical force on that property to walk out in a body, thereby closing the mine, has arrived here in an exhausted condition and tells a story of alleged maltreatment at Victor.

He says that after his release by the military board of Victor he was set upon by four masked men, beaten and robbed.

FOUR PERSONS BURNED BY BLAZING GASOLENE

Painful Accident in the Home of Mrs. Lillian Costa in California Street.

Four persons were severely burned by the explosion of a basin of gasoline in the kitchen of Mrs. Lillian Costa, 127 California Street northeast last evening.

They were Mrs. Costa, burned on the right arm and suffering from shock; Paul Toriano, four years old, burned on head, arms, legs and back; Percy Ackerman, two years old, and Joseph Costa, whose hands were badly burned while he was trying to rescue the two children from the flames.

Physicians at the Emergency Hospital, where Toriano was taken, reported this morning that he was resting quietly and doing well as could be expected, although his condition is regarded as serious, and the burns may prove fatal.

Dr. William P. Reeves, who is attending Ackerman, said today that the boy was suffering greatly from his numerous burns and had a restless night, but would probably recover. Mrs. Costa and her husband were not seriously burned, and their injuries were dressed by the family physician.

Cleaning a Sink.

At the time the explosion occurred Mrs. Costa was in the kitchen alone. Thinking she had turned out both burners of the gasoline stove which she used to prepare dinner on, she poured out a basinful of gasoline with which to clean out a sink. After soaking a rag in the combustible fluid Mrs. Costa attempted to pass the rag to go to the sink, having set the basin on a table on the opposite side of the room. Contrary to her belief all of the burners were not turned off, and when the rag soaked with gasoline got too close to the stove an explosion occurred. The room was filled with the fumes of the gasoline and in a moment Mrs. Costa was enveloped in flames and the basin was blazing.

Ackerman and Toriano, who were playing in the front yard, were attracted to the kitchen by Mrs. Costa's screams and the blaze. The two children tugged at her blazing sleeves and skirt and in the confusion the flames out their own clothing was ignited and they began to scream.

The cries of the trio awakened Joseph Costa, who was asleep in an adjoining room. He rushed into the kitchen and smothered out the blaze on Ackerman's clothing, with a heavy woolen shirt, and then turned to Toriano, and tore all of his flaming clothing off. Mrs. Costa, notwithstanding the fact that she was horribly burned on the arms, assisted her husband in smothering the fire in the children's clothing, and was burned worse than she was before.

Fire Alarm Sounded.

Some one hearing the screams of fire turned in an alarm from a nearby box, and within a short time a large crowd was gathered around the house, adding new excitement to the accident. Calls were sent into the Emergency Hospital, and the ambulance which arrived in a few moments, conveyed Toriano to the hospital, where his burns were immediately swathed with bandages soaked in cooling lotions.

The Ackerman lad was taken to his home, and Dr. Reeves was summoned to dress his injuries. The boy was regarded as seriously injured, and Dr. Reeves bandaged him from head to foot in order to cover his burns. He lay upon a couch at his home all evening groaning in agony, and his mother sat beside him, watching for fear the end might come if she should attend Mr. and Mrs. Costa in their homes. It was necessary to place Mrs. Costa under the influence of a narcotic, because she was prostrated by the shock of the accident.

When the firemen responded to the alarm they had to enter the house from without setting fire to the woodwork.

KNOX SAILS FOR EUROPE.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Former Attorney General P. C. Knox of Pennsylvania, and Mrs. Knox and Marshall Field, of Chicago, and Oscar G. Murray, president of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, were among the passengers who sailed on the White Star Line steamship Oceanic.

PILE DRIVER KILLS TWO.

SABINAL, Tex., July 28.—A Southern Pacific pile driver turned over last evening near here, killing B. Johnson and H. Adler, and seriously injuring Frank Prosser and F. W. Sharpe. All the men were employed on bridge work.

COLORADO'S MILITARY ARM

GEN. SHERMAN M. BELL.

Believes Abrogation of Martial Law at Cripple Creek a Mistake.

GEORGETOWN WILL LOSE M'GETTIGAN

Not to Return Because of Father's Death.

IS A STAR IN TWO BRANCHES

Popular Athlete was on Georgetown's Gridiron and Diamond—Saw Loss. Grit and Judgment.

Georgetown's football and baseball prospects received a rude jar today when it was learned that F. L. McGettigan, the varsity second baseman and pitcher, would not return in September.

The young athlete's father died in Philadelphia and now the son is to remain in the Quaker City to attend to the business interests of the family. The loss of McGettigan will be a severe blow to the Blue and Gray in the two leading branches of athletics.

"Mac" first made a name as an athlete at the Georgetown Prep School where he played on the baseball and football teams. When he entered the university he was a substitute end in the fall and in the spring made second base. Last year he was chosen for quarterback and played the position throughout the season.

Never Left Game.

He was never taken out of a game on account of injuries and it was largely due to his clever open-field tackling after the Indians had repeatedly broken away from the line that Georgetown was able to keep Carleton from running up a larger score. Although suffering from a severe blow on the head he did heroic work in the Lehigh contest in which his sure tackling was much in evidence.

Last spring he was shifted from the infield to the center garden in the ball team, where he played during the greater part of the season, but on the Northern trip he was again moved to second base. At the Georgetown indoor meet last winter McGettigan made his first appearance as a runner and won the six-yard dash without trouble.

Combining grit and speed with good judgment McGettigan was a natural athlete and at all times a valuable man to the varsity teams. To find some one to fill acceptably the vacancies caused by his absence will be no easy task.

He was looked upon as the probable captain of the 1904 baseball team.

BOY KILLS HIS FRIEND AND SURRENDERS TO POLICE

PITTSFIELD, Mass., July 28.—Thomas Wagner, eighteen years old, shot and killed Patrick O'Brien, thirteen years old, while the boys were returning from a swim in Onondaga Lake.

After the shooting Wagner picked up the body of his companion and carried it 300 yards out of the woods. He then gave himself up to the police and said he didn't know the revolver was loaded.

It was O'Brien's revolver. O'Brien had no father or mother and owned property valued at $15,000. Wagner was arrested on the charge of manslaughter, but was released on bail of $500. He belongs to a good family and the boys were warm friends.

FORCED BY CREDITORS TO TURN OVER PROPERTY

CHICAGO, Ill., July 28.—By an order entered in Judge Haney's court, Warren Springer, a prominent real estate dealer, was ordered to turn over all his property to a receiver by 10 o'clock this morning. The penalty of disobedience will be a term in the county jail for contempt.

The purpose of Mr. Springer's creditors in putting the property in a receiver's hands is to have it sold and the proceeds devoted to paying Mr. Springer's debts. A conservative estimate places the assets of the real estate man at $1,500,000, and his liabilities $1,125,000.

EMPRESS DOWAGER AIDS MISSIONARIES

Contributes $6,000 to Fund for Medical College.

OFFICIALS MAY FOLLOW SUIT

Institution to Be Established by One English and Two American Associations.

PEKIN, July 28.—For the first time since she was responsible for the government of China the Dowager Empress has publicly recognized the medical work of Protestant missions.

Recently the London Mission, the American Board of Foreign Missions, and the American Presbyterian Mission agreed to found jointly a college where modern medicine and surgery could be taught to medical missionaries of these three bodies. In accordance with the scheme a medical college is now under construction.

Mission to Build It.

The entire cost of building and equipment is being undertaken by the London Mission alone.

The students will undergo five years' training, and at the end of the course a diploma will be granted. The training will be regardless of creed, but the bulk of the students at first will naturally be Christians.

The cost is estimated at £10,000. Toward this the Dowager Empress has contributed $6,000. Subscriptions are now being sought from high Chinese officials, who are expected to follow the example of the Empress.

COMMISSIONERS MAY NOT FORBID THE HOSPITAL

Corporation Counsel Advises That Law Is Not Anticipatory in Case of Possible Nuisance.

The Commissioners are without authority to say where a hospital can, or cannot, be erected within the confines of the District of Columbia, according to an opinion submitted today by Acting Corporation Counsel E. H. Thomas.

The opinion was asked for by District Commissioner Macfarland as a result of the many protests that have been received by the Commissioners from property owners and residents near 7th Massachusetts Avenue northeast, where it is proposed to locate the new Eastern Dispensary and Casualty Hospital, the complaints being based on the ground that the nearness of such an institution would depreciate property.

The only way for the citizens to get rid of the hospital, suggests Mr. Thomas, is to allow it to be built, and then to prove that it is a public nuisance.

"The establishment of a hospital," says the Corporation Counsel, "is not a nuisance per se, and the law is not swift to adjudicate one a nuisance in any particular case and thereby frustrate the humane work of such an institution."

The mere fact that the erection of a hospital in any particular locality will have the effect of depreciating the value of real estate in such neighborhood is not in itself sufficient to constitute a nuisance, unless some special damage and inconvenience is established.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy—The Best in Existence.

T. M. Wood, manager of the "White County News," Beebe, Ark., is a representative Southern business man who does not hesitate in expressing his good opinion of a well-known remedy. He says: "It gives me pleasure to recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, having used it myself and in my family with the best results. In fact I believe it to be the best remedy of the kind in existence." Sold by all druggists.

TRICKLE OVER PARNELL FUND

Brother Blames Redmond
for Failure of Plan.

THOUGHT TO GET OLD HOME

Found It Was to Go to Irish Nation. Hated Government Gets It.

NEW YORK, July 28.—John Howard Parnell, the brother of Charles Stewart Parnell, has written a public letter relative to the plans of the Irish Nationalists for buying the Parnell home at Avondale. In it he says:

"Some time ago I gave publicity to a letter from Edward Dwyer, of New York city, a well-known Irish Nationalist, who is at present on a visit to Ireland, along with a letter from me on the subject.

"I now submit a further letter, giving my own opinion in regard to the fund, with some items of information which the Irish and Americans are not aware of.

To Purchase Avondale.

"Some years ago Messrs. Redmond and Tallon visited America to raise a fund for the erection of a monument and the purchase of Avondale to the memory of my late brother, Charles S. Parnell. Before John Redmond left I asked him if he would, with the aid of the late Edward O'Flaherty, of New York, try to get a loan by mortgage on Avondale to purchase the old home. I got him all the necessary papers, rentals, etc., to enable him to lay the scheme before the Irish-American capitalists.

"In our conversations he never mentioned it was his intention to buy Avondale for the Irish nation, because if he had I would have told him I would object, as I had already been offered Avondale by the court of chancery to purchase it under the land act.

Broke Off With Court.

"I broke off my arrangements with the court in order to let Mr. Redmond buy it, as I understood, for the Parnells. Mr. Redmond cabled from America that he had received sufficient money for the monument as well as for Avondale. At a meeting at the Mansion House, Dublin, after their return, Mr. Redmond gave an account of their mission and said that he was going to buy Avondale, not for the Parnells nor in my brother's name, but for the Irish nation.

"I was naturally astonished at these remarks, as it was not what I had asked him to do before he left Ireland. This proposal of giving my brother's home away was not doing justice to his memory.

Resented Arrangement.

"Being heir-at-law to Avondale, I resented this arrangement. Mr. Redmond also remarked that if any of the Parnells chose to live at Avondale they were to be made caretakers in their own home, the same way as the Irish landlords treated their evicted tenants.

"In fact, the Parnells were to be evicted and banished from their country.

"Now, I did not consider those proceedings patriotic. I am sure the Irish race in America would not have listened to any such unusual action, if they knew what the consequences would be.

Would Never Agree.

"After the meeting in the Mansion House I told Mr. Redmond I would never agree to such a proposal, and said I would try to buy Avondale. If I could not buy I would sell, rather than for our family to be kicked out of the country.

"Some time before the auction I met Patrick Boylan, a rich butcher, and I made an agreement with him to purchase Avondale and to sell to me, giving me two years to get the money. Mr. Boylan unfortunately died in the meantime, and the place passed into other hands, and when the two years were up I did not raise the money, and Mr. Redmond, although he obtained money to buy Avondale, as the subscribers believed, for the benefit of the Parnells, refused to do anything.

In Government Hands.

"The home of my late brother was allowed by John Redmond to fall into the hands of the government, a government hated by my brother. The Irish people really must not think I was against the nation in having an interest in it. On the contrary, while I was living there I did all in my power to make it of interest to the people, and carried on all my brother's patriotic works, in which he used to take so much interest, in the development of Irish industries. Only for my patriotic feelings for the country and the historic testimonials and presentations connected with my brother would have been, I would have sold it for a large sum of money.

No Selfish Motive.

"I have no selfish motive in regard to Avondale. All I want is to see the historic place remain in the name of the Parnells and be used as a park for the people.

"I wish the Irish-Americans who subscribed to request John Redmond to restore to the people all the historic testimonials and presentations connected with my brother would have been, I would have sold it for a large sum of money.

TO SUPPLY CROWS FOR PHILADELPHIA CLUB

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., July 28.—Three enterprising Scranton boys have left this city for Gulf Summit, Pa., where thousands of crows have a permanent roost.

The crows are gathering in such numbers that frequently limbs are broken from trees by their weight. The youngsters heard of the roost and made a contract with a Philadelphia gun club to furnish crows to be thrown in place of pigeons from the traps at the club's live bird shoots.

The officers of the club at first refused to listen to the proposition because a crow is a slow-flying bird, but finally agreed to pay twenty-five cents each for a thousand crows as an experiment.

Kaiser's Young Son Said to Have Cancer

Boy and Brother at Baths in Switzerland Being Treated for Growth in Throat Like That of Father.

INTERLAKE, Switzerland, July 28.—

The two young sons of the Emperor, August Wilhelm and Oscar, are now at the Heustreich Baths in Bernese Oberland, near Spiez, at the foot of the great Niesen. The newspapers here have not referred to the matter—in fact, there seems to be some sort of an agreement among them not to speak of their visit at all, but all the same it is full of significance.

The younger son, Oscar, who is about fourteen years old, is seriously ill with a pulmonary complaint that has developed a growth in the throat similar to the Emperor's trouble. In the case of the son it is stated on good authority that the growth is of cancerous nature. The visit of Oscar was made on the earnest recommendation of the German physician, Dr. Gerhardt, an authority on throat diseases. He advised the Kaiser to put the boy there at once, believing that the cold sulphur springs, which are of an exceedingly good quality, and the modern equipment in special use there, would be directly beneficial.

The boys are enjoying their stay at the baths very much. The mornings are occupied in the water cure for Oscar and in the afternoons they ride and drive. Yesterday they climbed the Niesen—over 5,000 feet—and gathering some Alpine roses and edelweiss, sent them in a box to the Kaiser.

THE REV. MR. HORNER WILL SUCCEED CORDOVA

SOUTH RIVER, N. J., July 28.—The Rev. W. Horner, formerly a member of the New York conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, will fill the vacancy in the pulpit of the local Methodist Church caused by the resignation of the Rev. J. F. Cordova.

The Rev. Mr. Horner was for a time a professor in a Western college before he took up preaching. The new minister will arrive here today.

With his family he will occupy the parsonage, which has been vacated by the Rev. Mr. Cordova. The work of rebuilding the church membership, which has been somewhat depleted of late.

COULDN'T DODGE BUCKET AND WAS HIT ON THE HEAD

Suffering from a scalp wound which he received at the filtration plant, about 4:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon, William Clark, a negro, of 609 Pomeroy Street northwest, was taken to Freedman's Hospital for treatment. He said he was struck on the head by a dirt bucket while it was dumping a bucketful of water into a wagon. He left the hospital after having the injury dressed.

SUICIDE'S FAREWELL ON WHISKY BOTTLE

LANCASTER, Pa., July 28.—Believing that he was in Philadelphia, for which place he left about a week ago, the family of George Knecht were startled when his dead body was found floating in Conestoga creek, near Conestoga Park.

Knecht, who was sixty years old, had been drinking heavily recently, and he had intimated to his family some time ago that if he could not stop the habit he would kill himself.

A quart bottle of whisky was found on the bank of the stream and on it was a note written by the suicide, saying: "Whoever finds this can drink it."

ABNER M'KINLEY ESTATE GOES TO HIS FAMILY

SOMERSET, Pa., July 28.—Abner McKinley's will, just probated here, does not indicate the value of the estate, the bulk of which is bequeathed to the widow, his daughter, Mrs. Mabel McKinley Baer.

An expenditure of $5,000 is ordered for a monument in the family plot at Canton, Ohio.

MANY PEOPLE HAVE

CATARRH OF STOMACH

A Beautiful Michigan Belle Cured of Catarrh of the Stomach by Pe-ru-na.

Miss Louise Matt, Battle Creek, Mich., writes: "I can only say what others have said before me, that Peruna is a most wonderful medicine for catarrh and stomach troubles."

"I suffered so long with indigestion and dyspepsia, and tried so many things to cure me, without relief, that I made up my mind my case was hopeless. One of my friends advised me to try Peruna for a month, assuring me that I could not fail to find from its use some relief and possibly a cure. So I took new courage and bought a bottle of Peruna, determined to give it a thorough trial, which I did. In just six weeks I was entirely rid of my stomach trouble, and bless the day when Peruna was brought to my notice."

more cases of dyspepsia than Peruna. The reason for this is that dyspepsia in a great majority of cases depends upon catarrh of the stomach. Catarrh of the stomach may have been set up by an extension of the catarrh from the throat or head. It may be induced by late supper, indigestible diet, rapid eating, drinking ice water, the use of alcoholic stimulants, and many other indiscretions.

Peruna cures all such cases of dyspepsia, simply because it cures catarrh where it is located. The reason so many cases of dyspepsia suffer on and on without any relief, trying this medicine and that, is that these conditions are not recognized as catarrh of the stomach.

Anyone suffering from dyspepsia, having tried the ordinary remedies without relief, would be safe to assume that their case is one of catarrh of the stomach, and should at once begin a course of Peruna. Peruna is sure to cure these cases. It never fails.

Through overwork and anxiety in my business I was very much run down, had loss of appetite, and what was worse than that, loss of sleep at night. I was afraid I would have to consult a physician, when one of my customers advised me to try Peruna, as it had made her well and strong. I began to take it, and in a few days began to feel stronger, and from the first dose I slept at night, without awakening. I took only two bottles; now I am well, but I am never without Peruna in the house. If anyone wishes to call on me I will gladly advise them to take it, as I have received so much benefit from it, and want all who are ill to use it, as I did."—Mrs. Jessie Colton.

No medicine in the world has cured

Miss Dade Stegman, Superintendent of the Chicago North Side Woman's Club, of Chicago. In a recent letter to Dr. Hartman, speaks of Peruna as follows:

Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.: Gentlemen: "Peruna has often been used by the members of our club in cases of stomach trouble and general debility—also recently in cases of influenza, and always with the most beneficial results. I think a great deal of Peruna—often recommend it to my friends, and am glad to say that I have tried it speak a good word for it."—Dade Stegman.

Mrs. Jessie Colton, 429 East Ninth Street, New York city, writes:

INVESTIGATE FOUR DESERT TRAGEDIES

Nevada Postmaster Held in Custody.

ROBBERY ALLEGED MOTIVE

One Victim Shot, Lives to Testify Against Accused Government Official.

RENO, Nev., July 28.—The sheriff of Churchill county has begun an investigation in regard to four desert tragedies and some disappearances which are supposed to have been due to murder.

Pending the investigation, H. C. Lawrence, postmaster of Hazen, is held in custody. There is a belief that an organized system of murders and robberies has been in vogue during the last year.

Within seven months four men have been found dead on the desert between Wadsworth and Hazen and along the Truckee River. In each instance death had been caused by the crushing of the skull and indications pointed to murder. Two of the bodies were identified as those of Charles Ahearn, of Oakland, and James Owen, an aged prospector. The identity of the other victims is not known.

H. C. Lawrence was arrested three weeks ago and charged with attempting to murder a man named Gunnison, while on a trip into the desert, within a few miles from Hazen. According to the testimony offered Lawrence, while walking behind Gunnison, shot the latter. Gunnison fell, and it is alleged, Lawrence robbed him of his money.

The injuries were not fatal, and Lawrence was arrested after his return to Hazen. It was with difficulty that the officers saved him from an angry mob and took him to the county jail at Fallon.

HEN LAYS EIGHT-INCH EGG.

WINSTED, Conn., July 28.—Robert Pickett, of Riverton, has a hen that laid an egg which measured eight inches one way and seven the other and weighed four pounds and one ounce.
